

AUTISM AND POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR SUPPORT

2024

WHO IS THE TRAINING FOR?

Mental health clinicians, psychologists, speech pathologists, social workers, occupational therapists, teachers, early intervention workers, family support workers, Headspace clinicians, paediatric fellows, and trainees in child & adolescent psychiatry.

WHO PROVIDES THE TRAINING?

Leah Dalton, Mental Health Social Worker & Jenny Reid, Speech Pathologist

Both presenters have extensive experience in autism and positive behaviour support intervention. They have worked with autistic children, adolescents, and young adults in the mental health and community sectors.

WHAT DOES THE TRAINING INCLUDE?

This one-day online workshop focuses on the child and adolescent age group and encompasses skill development in the following areas:

- Positive Behaviour Support
- Understanding behaviours of concern and creating an autism friendly environment
- Writing an autism specific profile and behaviour support plan (please come with a specific client or case study in mind)
- Writing a plan to respond confidently when challenging behaviour occurs
- Teaching new skills to promote independence and quality of life

Pre-reading materials will be emailed 1-2 weeks before the workshop. This information will be assumed knowledge for the training.
